

The Indian Springs Annual Easter Egg Hunt once again proved to be a resounding success, thanks to the unwavering support of our community. We owe a debt of gratitude to all who contributed, but allow me to highlight a few remarkable individuals and organizations:

Firstly, a heartfelt thank you to Dr. Lisa Wilson for her continuous generosity in donating gift cards for prizes. Dr. Wilson's steadfast support has become an integral part of our event, and we are deeply grateful for her ongoing commitment.

A special acknowledgment is due to Jeremy at the Walmart Neighborhood Market, whose willingness to offer gift cards has been invaluable in making our Easter Egg Hunt a memorable experience for all involved.

We are also indebted to the Shelby County Sheriff's deputies, whose dedication and support, particularly in managing traffic control, have consistently gone above and beyond our expectations.

Of course, the success of our event is a collective effort, and we extend our appreciation to all those who contribute in various ways to make it possible. Whether through donations, volunteering, or simply spreading the word, each individual plays a vital role in giving back to our community.

Once again, thank you to everyone involved for your generosity, dedication, and spirit of community. Your contributions have made a meaningful difference, and we look forward to continuing this tradition of giving back for years to come.
